Introduction

The first thing most men look for when searching for the love of their life, the one they want to spend the rest of their life with is of course physical. There has to be a physical attraction first and foremost. It is sad I know but let's be honest; you don't look around a room for someone with a warm heart and good sense of humor!

Once they are attracted to a girl they then learn a bit more about them through dating and hanging out together. What's most important to them? Are they adventurous? Do they want kids? Are they looking for long term or just a fun time? These are things you slowly learn about someone and when things go well great! When they don't, well you have to take a good look at what went wrong.

There is however certain types of girls/women you might want to avoid, especially if you have come across them in your own relationships. Here are 13 types of women to steer clear of, unless of course you ARE looking for one of these particular types:

The Desperate Girl

This is the girl who is looking for that “perfect” relationship. She wants what all of her friends have, a great guy, the house and white picket fence the 2.5 kids and the dog. They want to be a part of something and will stop at pretty much nothing to get it. They tend to always cling to the wrong type of guy and never seem to have a lasting relationship.

These girls are trouble for many reasons and if you aren’t looking for a long term relationship this isn’t the type of girl you even want to start with because they will worm their way in before you know it. Do NOT have a one night stand with this type of girl because to her it will be more, as she is more emotionally driven than most girls.

How to spot a Desperate Girl:

She is usually the one that jumps into relationships with both feet and doesn’t look before she leaps. After a couple of dates she is in love, she tells all her friends that you are the perfect guy and the two of you are going to be together forever.

She makes plans for the two of you even if you haven’t been dating that long, she starts trying to change you, clothes, friends, what you drive or even what you eat.

She starts talking about a “place” or is cleaning and cooking for you and doing your laundry. In many cases these things happen so quickly and smoothly you don’t even know what is happening and before you know it she has some of her “things” at your place.

Be VERY careful with this type of girl, she will again do just about anything to get what she wants and that includes getting pregnant to make sure she doesn’t lose you. In her mind you are “the one” and unless you make it very clear that you are not ready for a permanent relationship, a commitment she will think you are.

Signs of a Desperate Girl:

She is quick to cling to you, calls the day after your first date or in this day and age she could text, leave voice mail, FB stalk you and post about what a wonderful time she had.

She looks forward to the next date and may even plan it without you even knowing! She might stop by your work unannounced; make you lunch or plan to make you dinner etc.

She doesn't take no for an answer, and before you know it you will be at her place eating a romantic dinner and then off to the bedroom. She is very slick at pulling things off.

Whoever you are dating be VERY clear about your intentions even if it means you might come off looking like it jerk, it's better than falling into a trap and then getting stuck in something you never wanted in the first place!

Angry girl

The angry girl is yet another girl to avoid and here's why:

- She is the type of girl that sees life as a battle and everyone is out to get her and she has to fight her way through each and every day.
- Anything that is happening or is told to her is seen as a insult and a direct attack on her.
- She also has a bad opinion about men, sees only the negative sides of men.
- She doesn't know how to be happy so every day is a struggle because she looks at the negative sides of everything and not the positive side.
- She is always right, no matter what is said or how it is said she will turn it around to suit her and make her feel better.

A future with this type of girl will end up in daily battles, she has major trust issues which can be because of past relationships and without help in dealing with these issues she will always have a chip on her shoulder.

Insecure girl

All about this type of girl:

- While she usually is very good at treating men well there is always that underlying insecurity that will cause issues in the future.
- She has trouble with trusting herself and her confidence and will look for problems that aren't really there.
- She has trouble making decisions because she doesn't trust that her choices will be the right ones.
- She is always second guessing herself, whether it's the men in her life or where she lives, her job situation what she is wearing or how she looks.
- She needs constant reassurance that she's attractive and worries incessantly about whether she is good enough for the man in her life, that he will find someone better, prettier, skinnier etc.
- Eventually the insecurity will go so far as she will start accusing you of cheating on her. Because she doesn't have enough faith in herself and enough confidence she will believe that she isn't good enough for you so you must be out finding someone better.
- It will become a constant battle of texts, phone calls and "just stopping by" to reassure her that you are where you say you are going to be and that there isn't anyone else there with you, at least of the female persuasion.
- She will question you when you are out on whether you think a girl is pretty or not and try and trap you by saying she doesn't care she is just curious.
- She is constantly comparing herself to others, they are prettier, smarter, thinner has better hair a better body etc. and try and pull you into the conversation just to prove to herself that she isn't as good as others.

Stupid girl

So many reasons to avoid this type of girl:

- This type of girl likes to speak a lot but she doesn't really say much, she likes to THINK she knows what she is talking about but when up against someone who actually does know she will falter.
- She is great at gossiping and loves to put down others because she knows that her intelligence isn't up to par and so it's easier to put others down than to point out her own flaws.
- Trying to have an important or intelligent conversation with her will become very irritating after awhile. You know what they say about looks, they only go so far.
- Teaching someone like this becomes an uphill battle because she either doesn't want to learn or is incapable of learning.
- You will end up making up excuses as to why you can't take her somewhere especially if it will be with a group of friends that have nothing in common with her or just can't talk to her about anything.
- Talking about national events or events of importance to you will mean nothing to her; actually if you were to ask her who the current president is she might have trouble answering that question!
- She is fun for the day, for eye/arm candy but not for long term because after awhile the novelty will wear off and you will want someone you can cuddle with at night and talk about the day's events and NOT her mani and pedi!

High Maintenance Girl

Why to avoid this girl:

- She is usually born into money and was spoiled from the get go and so expects the same from any man she dates.
- If you have it, hers is better. If she doesn't have better than you she will be sure to go out and get it just to show you she has the latest and better than yours.
- She will only date you if you can spoil her; treating her the way she has been treated her whole life and that is taking her to the fanciest restaurants and buying her the best of everything.
- It is ALWAYS all about her, it doesn't matter what kind of day you have had or if your childhood pet died, if she breaks a nail it has to be taken care of NOW and she won't take no for an answer.
- She is a very selfish, self-indulgent grown up "daddy's little rich girl"
- She always needs to be the center of attention, no matter where you are going or going to be or with whom she better look the best and be the best looking girl in the room and you better let her know that constantly.
- She needs you to talk the walk and walk the talk, if she talks about the latest trip you all took that cost thousands of dollars she needs you to back her up and brag just as much as she does.
- Her daddy better approve of you or you will be OUT.
- Your job is just as important as your car and you better have the best of both!

If you ever split up with the high maintenance girl, be prepared for her wrath because no matter what it is SHE did wrong you will always be at fault.

Sensitive Girl

Everything in life hurts this kind of girl even if it isn't or didn't happen to her, it can be something she reads or a friend tells her and it will put her in a tailspin.

Also...

- She is the type of girl who cries a lot, every innocent comment or criticism will upset her. She does NOT take constructive criticism well at all so even the most innocent of comments "Awe, I liked your hair the other way better" will throw her whole day off.
- Avoid this kind of girl because if you are dating one you will have to spend all the time apologizing even if you didn't make a mistake. Something as simple as talking about a friends or coworkers relationship can make her think you don't want to be with her or would rather have a relationship like theirs.
- She will use your feeling for her against you if you try and break up with her. She might tell you she will hurt or kill herself if you leave her. If you have children with her she will use them against you or make it hard for you to see them.
- She will never be ok with you going off with the boys and having "me" time because she will take it as a dig against her, that you don't want to spend time with her.
- She blows everything out of proportion, "nothing I do is right" and that is how you will live your days should you find something wrong. Maybe the meal she made wasn't exactly something you care for, or the dress she is wearing doesn't flatter her, unless you can keep these things to yourself constantly you will be in for some miserable days.
- She will ask questions to see how you answer and then will use your answers no matter how truthful against you if it's not what she wants to hear.

Life with a girl like this can be a constant battle, you will feel as though you are walking on eggshells all the time because you are afraid to do or say anything that will upset her.

Elusive girl

This is the type of girl who is afraid to start a relationship so she is constantly making up excuses as to why she can't be in a relationship; my last relationship ended badly, my job keeps me too busy, my cat needs me too much.

- She might have been hurt in a past relationship and so subconsciously avoids or sabotages new relationships in the present. She can and will go so far as to do something purposely that she knows will hurt or upset you so that you will break up with her.
- She seems interested in the beginning but after a while she runs away. This could be because of things that happened to her when she was younger, maybe the people she thought she could trust always walked out of her life and so she believes you too will do the same.
- She is the type of girl who likes to send mixed messages so you'll never understand her. One day she can't get enough of you and the next you are smothering her. It's like the song lyrics "your hot then your cold" this will be the girl you are dealing with.
- She doesn't know what she wants. On the one hand she wants the relationship and commitment, the 1.5 kids, white picket fence and soccer mom van and then she isn't sure, she wants to travel and spend time with friends.
- She will make up every excuse in the world NOT to commit. Even if you have been together for a long period of time and you are just talking about moving in together she won't give a decisive answer and you will soon give up.

This type of girl is always going to be one you have to chase. IF you are up for a LONG run and love to chase the girl then she might work out, but after awhile you like to rest and if you do she will be gone very quickly!

The Talker

There is a big difference between somebody who is able to make good conversation and have sense of humor, and somebody who always has to make a comment about everything

- She is hard to please and will always have something to say about anything and everything. If you say its black she will say its white if you tell her it's cold out she will say it's hot.
- She knows everything and is the best at everything; if you have a recipe for chocolate cake she has one better and will tell you exactly why it is better than yours.
- There is nothing she doesn't know even if she doesn't know! She will talk you under the table and before you know it you will be wondering if she really does know what she is talking about.
- You can't get a word in edgewise with a talker they will talk and talk until they are short of breath and then they will talk some more. When you think you might have a way in they will cut you off and talk some more.

If you aren't a talker, if you are the quiet and reserved type you MIGHT be able to be with a talker, after all there won't be any of those awkward silences when you are dating, but once things start getting serious and you actually do want to say something it might get a bit aggravating.

So be careful when jumping into this type of a relationship because after all we all really do have something to say and not being able to say it will get annoying after awhile.

The Romantic Girl

This girl lives in her own world, of movies and romance novels. The real world doesn't seem real when she is in it.

- She is very dreamy, imagining things, expecting Prince Charming to come after her and when things don't turn out the way they do in the movies she gets disappointed very quickly and so is more apt to jump from one relationship to the next looking for her fairytale ending.
- She doesn't know how the real world is. She doesn't look at things realistically or practically. It's all a fantasy to her and even when you try and point out that reality isn't like the movies she will turn a deaf ear and move on. After all, Prince Charming IS out there isn't he?
- She has grown up with the idea that she is a princess and you are her prince and in the end you will move into the castle and be surrounded by servants and waited on hand and foot.
- She has trouble seeing the world for what it really is and tends to trust more than she should because in a fairytale the bad person always is defeated so she feels safe even when she should be leery.
- Trying to have a realistic conversation with this type of girl can become wearying at times because she sees life through rose colored glasses and just doesn't understand why you can't see things the same way.

While romance can be wonderful and exciting, living it on a daily basis can become monotonous and frustrating because at some point you do have to come down to earth and be realistic. The bills won't pay themselves and you do have to work eventually.

Tread lightly with this type of girl because in the beginning she will suck you in, you will put on the rose colored glasses and it will be all fun and games for awhile but in time you will wake up and realize that you can't live in a dream world forever, even if she tries to convince you otherwise.

The Controlling Girl

She likes to have total control in a relationship and over you too.

- She wants to control you in everything aspects of the relationship from where you go eat to what you wear or what friends you have.
- There is no controlling this type of girl, if you try you will be very sorry because in the end you will be the one that ends up giving up anyway.
- If you try to have your way she will let you know exactly why you can't go where you want to go or wear what you want to wear and more times than not you will give in because otherwise she will make the time you are together totally miserable.
- She will give you the third degree anytime you want to go anywhere, even if it's over to your parents. She will want to know why you have to go, what you are going to do, how long you are going to be gone etc. In most cases if you ask her if she wants to go along she will say no, but she won't want you to have a good time without her either.
- You will end up lying to this type of girl rather than arguing or playing the 20 questions game both before you leave and after you get back so just be prepared because it won't be a fun ride in this kind of a relationship.
- Trying to be nice or butter her up won't work either because she will see right through you and jump on you wanting to know either what you did wrong or what you plan on doing that you are being so nice, because in this type of a relationship nice isn't the norm.

Unless you are the type of guy who can't do things for himself, needs to be told what to do all the time can't make up his own mind and likes to be controlled in every possible way this is not the type of girl you want to be in a relationship with. You will spend more time being miserable than you will be happy.

The Flirt

She flirts with anybody and flaunts her sexuality at every opportunity

- Her personality makes her the life of the party and trying to keep quiet and subdued will be quite a chore.
- A flirty girl like this is always looking for someone more fun and exciting someone who can keep her on her toes and show her a good time so you run the risk of being dumped should someone more “fun” come along.
- Many times she doesn’t even realize that she is flirting and can get herself in trouble with the wrong guy so you may just end up in more fights than you care to be in.
- Guys who come up against a flirty girl usually go one of two ways; they either play along and hope to get a little action in which case you will be fighting a battle just about every time you go out or they will be polite and of course feel sorry for you having to deal with someone like her.

Conclusion

Knowing what to watch out for in any of these types of girls is the key to finding the one that will fit you and your lifestyle.

For some men being controlled or spending money on a good looking girl doesn't bother them, for others they want something more "normal" and permanent and so knowing what you could be up against will just put you ahead in the game.
